

EHC Nurses Workshop:
Sexual Health & Intimacy: How to have the conversation with patients

Friday 7 October 2022
17.30-19.30 hrs CET
Draft Programme

EHC Nurses workshop on sexual health and intimacy Facilitated by Nanda Uitslager and Kate Khair
17.30 - 17.40	Welcome and introduction: why and how, what are the objectives Nanda Uitslager & Kate Khair
17.40 - 18.10	Discussion on the use of the 'appropriate' language Nurses' experiences, current practices and willingness Interactive session with participants
18.10 - 18.30	What is already known in literature? NU and/or KK
	Overview of female and male sex-related and sex-interfering bleeds Time line?
	Q&A and discussions Experiences from practice
18.30 - 18.50	What are the 'right' questions to approach sexual health issues? Would you rather questions What was the best/worst question ever and why? The role of nurses to approach sexual health and intimacy questions Open Q and A with patient
18.50 - 19.15	Introducing the dual control model Nanda Uitslager
19.15 - 19.25	Feedback on usefulness in daily practice
19.25 - 19.30	Closing remarks and questionnaire